Flowers wilt with construction pace

This is the condition of Vijayanagar Market; a visitor said that the area has become very congested as well

Vijayanagar Market's delayed revamp process is affecting livelihoods of vendors

"The construction work is definitely affecting business. The dust that is generated from the work is reducing the quality of the fruits
– Kemparaju, vendor

The Vijayanagar Market in the Govindaraja Nagar ward is home to several shops that sell fruits, vegetables, flowers, and other essentials on a daily basis. Currently, the premises of the market are under renovation, and an underground building is being constructed for the vendors of the market to make a living. However, the vendors and visitors of the market are not satisfied with the pace of the construction process.

"Earlier, we used to put up stalls near the main road. Ever since the construction work started, we have been asked to move to the back of the road. The first three months were very difficult for us because our business was very bad," said one of the vendors.

The project, which started about four years ago, has delayed the work progress. It is presently under construction and aims to accommodate all the vendors of the market under one roof. Currently, more than a hundred vendors are making a living at this market, and the building under construction can accommodate nearly a hundred vendors.

"It is said that the sellers who have been part of the market for the longest period of time will get more preference in comparison to the ones who started selling recently. There are sellers who have been making a living from this market for more than 20 years," said Naveen, another vendor.

Kemparaju, also a vendor, told Bangalore Mirror, "The construction work is definitely affecting our business. The dust that is generated from the work is reducing the quality of the fruits we are selling. Nowadays, people have stopped visiting markets." He is worried that the slow pace of construction will end up in more losses for vendors like him.

"I stay very close to this market. The present condition of the market is quite scary. It is very dangerous for vehicles that pass by. This area has become very congested. I have seen instances where autos have to go to the extreme corner of the road to make way for other vehicles," reported a visitor.

Whitefield metro to get VVIP inauguration

Karnataka is set to witness yet another visit by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, and this time he will inaugurate the Whitefield Metro. While he will be visiting tomorrow to inaugurate the metro line, Union Minister Amit Shah will tour the state between today and March 26. With back-to-back visits to the state, much to the Opposition's disapproval, the ruling BJP is hoping to leave a mark on voters.

Shah will unveil statues of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, Nadaprabhu Kempe Gowda, and Basaveshwar. The Sardar Patel statue is in Gorta village, Bidar district. Bengaluru architect Kempe Gowda and social reformer Basaveshwara's statues have been built on the premises of the Vidhana Soudha in Bengaluru, and Shah will unveil them on March 26.

Opposition leader Siddaramaiah said, "The people who are opposed to the principles of Basaveshwar are unveiling the statue. What message are they giving? Shah is visiting Karnataka during elections only with a political motive."

Karnataka Congress raised objections to Modi's repeated trips, saying that he has become a 'quack doctor of inaugurating half-baked projects in the state for gaining mileage in elections'.

Randeep Singh Surjewala, Karnataka in-charge and General Secretary of Congress, said, "The BJP governments know that they will be decisively defeated in the assembly polls. They are desperately trying every publicity stunt. Are they putting poll publicity over the lives of Bengalureans and public safety, especially when metro construction in Bengaluru has claimed 38 precious lives?"

He also said that Modi will inaugurate a metro line from 'nowhere to nowhere'.

BJP insiders claim that the visits will set right the setbacks caused by a BJP MLA becoming a prime accused in a bribery case and some leaders switching sides to join Congress.

Traffic restrictions today

Shah will chair the Regional Conference on 'Drug Trafficking and National Security' in Bengaluru today. Representatives from five southern states and three union territories will be attending the conference.

Shah will also oversee destruction of 9,298 kg of seized drugs valued at Rs 1,235 crore during the meeting.

Due to the visit, Bengaluru Traffic police have asked commuters to avoid the following roads from 12-4 pm today: Old Airport Road, Mysore Road, NR Road, Nrupathunga Road, Seshadri Road, Palace Road, Race course Road, and Kengeri to Kommaghatta road.

Apart from this, the movement of light, medium, and heavy goods vehicles is restricted between 6 am and 4 pm in: Town hall to NR Road, towards Mysuru road, Nayandahalli, Kumbalgodu to Kengeri.

The 13-km-long KR Puram-Whitefield line has seen many delays

Ordering IPhone? You could be getting soap

Consumer gets detergent instead of phone; to get Rs 25,000 compensation

A Consumer Commission has ordered e-commerce major Flipkart and a retailer to pay Rs 25,000 for deficiency in service and unfair trade practice and causing mental agony and physical harassment to a consumer who was delivered a bar of detergent soap and small keypad phone instead of the iPhone he had ordered.

This payment will be apart from the refund of Rs 48,999 that the consumer Harsha S, a student from the district headquarters town of Koppal in Karnataka, had paid for the iPhone.

Harsha approached the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, Koppal, against Flipkart Internet Private Limited and Sane Retails complaining that he was sent a small keypad phone and a 'Nirma' soap instead of an Apple iPhone he had ordered online.

He alleged in his complaint, which dates back to 2021, that he had paid Rs 48,999 and demanded refund and also compensation for deficiency of service and mental agony he underwent.

The compensation amount will be paid to the consumer by Flipkart and the retailer apart from the refund of Rs 48,999 that he paid to purchase the IPhone

The complainant said he was shocked after opening the parcel that he received as it contained a small keypad phone and one detergent soap of 140 grams instead of the booked Apple iPhone 11 (Green 65GB).

The Commission said in its order last week: "It is worthwhile to mention here that, nowadays online shopping is spreading everywhere, because it is time and money saving, but the responsibilities of the companies cannot be over after selling of the product, as it is the bounden duty of the companies to satisfy their customers, because it does not give any liberty to usurp the money of the consumers either by sending wrong items/product to cheat the customers and to gulp the money of customers."

It held Flipkart and its retailer responsible for deficiency of service, and said their act and conduct fall under unfair trade practice as they sold or sent the wrong item than the purchased item even after charging full amount of the product.

The Commission, comprising the President AG Maldar, woman member GE Sowbhagyalakshmi, and member GS Patil, ordered that Flipkart and Sane Retails "are jointly and severally liable to pay compensation of Rs10,000 towards deficiency in service and unfair trade practice and Rs 15,000 for mental agony, physical harassment and cost of litigation."

They were also ordered to refund the cost of the phone, Rs 48,999, all within eight weeks.

As usual, news from the vicinity of Sivananda Circle Flyover, isn't inspiring. Now the residents of the area are up in arms over creation of traffic islands.

Citizens from the area BM spoke to claimed the initiative, apparently taken up for the beautification of the area, is a waste of taxpayers' money.

This unannounced road construction and work to install traffic islands along Race Course Road have been inconveniencing the residents of the area. The construction is taking place at a junction that links roads leading towards Basaveshwara Circle, Sivananda Circle and Nehru Circle.

"I have been part of this locality for more than 40 years. The concerned authorities have not consulted any of the residents before initiating this construction. Anyone approaching this area is bound to face challenges. People coming to Basaveshwara Circle wanting to go to Seshadripuram may be confused because there are two to three right turns," a local resident told BM.

It's that time of the year when temperatures are soaring and so is the demand for water. Many Bengalureans are now dialling private water tankers for filling up tanks. However, the Bangalore Water Supply and Sewerage Board (BWSSB) has stepped up to provide mobile tanker facilities for those who cannot afford private tankers.

BWSSB chairman N Jayaram told media that they were planning to provide tankers for every Assembly segment. "We are seeing an increase in demand for water during the summer. Currently, we have 15 thousand plus borewells in the city which are managed by the water board. Though we can provide piped water for houses, we cannot provide tanker water to every individual house. Hence, we are planning to supply tankers for communities. As of now, we have planned to provide two tankers for every assembly segment. We have 70 tankers which will be sufficient to provide water in 28 assembly segments of Bengaluru."

Reacting to this, Sukumar S, a resident of Mahadevapura said the idea was a good one. However, it would not be sufficient as there would invariably be a long queue for fetching water from tankers and each household would only get minimum water. There are many households in the city which are

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday announced a plan to establish a film city on par with international standards to enable shooting of Hollywood movies.

After inaugurating the 14th edition of Bengaluru International Film Festival on the grand steps of the Vidhana Soudha, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said that his government has extended full cooperation and has done everything for the development of Kannada film industry.

"My government has agreed for the construction of mini theatres for screening movies in Tier One and Tier Two cities. A delegation of the Kannada film industry met me and demanded that I agree to the construction of mini theatres. I have agreed to it. I have also increased the number of Kannada movies for subsidy from 125 movies to 200 movies every year," said the Chief Minister.

Bommai also said that the government has taken measures for the construction of Dr Puneeth Rajkumar's memorial. "Arrangements are also being made for the inauguration of Dr Ambareesh's memorial shortly. We have also decided to name Race Course Road after Dr Ambareesh," the Chief Minister said.

Appreciating the organisers of 14th edition of Bengaluru International Film Festival, the Chief Minister said that he was very happy with the selection of movies for screening during the film festival. "Most of the films are close to reality. I want the people to avail this facility to watch good movies during the festival," he said.

> "I have also increased the number of Kannada movies for subsidy from 125 movies to 200 movies every year
> – Basavaraj Bommai, Chief Minister

Veteran cinematographer and director Govind Nihalani and veteran script writer and producer V Vijayendra Prasad, Kantara fame Sapthami Gowda and Abishek Ambareesh were the guests of honour at the inaugural function.

"It is a special evening for everybody gathered here because today is the 100th birth anniversary of great cinematographer VK Murthy's birth anniversary. I am fortunate to have an opportunity to work with him. Both of us are alumni of SJ Government Polytechnic," said Govind Nihalani.

Veteran script writer V Vijayendra Prasad, father of director SS Rajamouli, expressed gratitude for inviting him. "I hope all those born in Karnataka are on par with his son Rajamouli," Prasad said.

Earlier, Narahari Rao, artistic director of the film festival, appealed to the government to fix March 3 for the commencement of the Bengaluru International Film Festival every year.

'Fix voters' data for Shantinagar, Shivajinagar'

The High Court of Karnataka directed the Election Commission of India (ECI) to rectify discrepancies in the voters list of the Shivajinagar and Shantinagar Assembly constituencies in Bengaluru to ensure free and fair elections.

Disposing of two petitions filed by the Bharatiya Janata Party and one of its party workers, the High Court recently directed the Election Commission to act swiftly and complete the process before March 26.

"The Commission must bear in mind that these discrepancies are to be rectified for the conduct of elections to be free and fair. Elections being free and fair is of paramount essence in a democracy. In fact, it is the lifeblood of a democracy," Justice M Nagaprasanna said in the common judgment on both petitions.

The BJP in its petition regarding Shivajinagar constituency contended that its complaints and representations about voter discrepancies have not been considered.

It was contended that voters who are either dead or have shifted out of the constituency have not been identified. Duplication of names on the voters' lists has also not been eliminated.

It was claimed that 26,000 voters who are either dead or have shifted from the constituency have not been removed from the voters' list by the Election Commission.

In its inquiry, the EC found 11,000 such voters who are either dead or have shifted out of Shivajinagar. Of these, 9,195 have shifted their residence while the others are dead.

Notices were issued to those who were presumed to have shifted, but 914 of them confirmed that they were still staying in the same constituency. Action to remove the names of the remaining 8,281 is being taken, as per the HC order, it said.

In the case of Shantinagar, the Commission said that 2,773 voters have either shifted or have died.

The High Court ordered that the verification exercise should be completed by March 26, in view of the "impending urgency". The Assembly elections in Karnataka are due by May.

The Commission made a public announcement and published the list of these voters on Wednesday. – PTI

Covid, presenting a new symptom - UTI

'In some cases, urinary tract infection is more pronounced than covid-19 infection itself'

| Bangalore Mirror Bureau
mybangaloremirror
@timesgroup.com

TWEETS @BangaloreMirror

Every wave of covid seems to be throwing up a new surprise in terms of infections. In the latest bout of covid, doctors are seeing patients reporting urinary tract infection as one of the symptoms of covid. Apart from the typical symptoms of fever, cold and cough, many patients testing positive for covid-19 these days are also reporting urinary tract infection (UTI), pain and extreme weakness, said city-based doctors.

"We are seeing a lot of co-infections, especially urinary infections, among patients. In some cases, the UTI is more pronounced than the covid-19 infection itself," said Dr Ashish Chauhan, a general physician. He added: "There are others walking in with a positive report but not showing any typical symptoms. We are not running tests unless the symptoms are severe or the patients have comorbidities."

Hinting at the possibility of a H3N2 and covid-19 infection together, some doctors have also advised that people should get the flu vaccine especially if they have missed a covid-19 vaccine. Unexplained and prolonged malaise, memory loss, fluctuations in blood pressure and irritability are other issues being reported among covid-19 patients.

Life in a metro: File photo of a time when more people use to wear masks when they left their homes

"Worsening of existing comorbidities such as diabetes, cardiac issues and hypertension might become more pronounced in some cases," said a senior doctor from a government hospital, citing the case of a hypertensive patient reporting massive fluctuations in blood pressure.

Incidentally, in the last two weeks, a chunk of covid-19 cases sent for genome sequencing have turned out to be carrying the XBB.1.16. In fact, XBB variant cases are driving the covid surge in Karnataka. Between January and December 2022, the share of XBB variants was a mere 1.66% in Karnataka. But, between January and March 2023, the share of these cases has jumped to 92.3%.

The Centre has asked Karnataka to conduct a mock drill in hospitals to check the preparedness. The eight states where the maximum number of Covid cases is being reported currently are Maharashtra, Gujarat, Kerala, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Delhi, Himachal Pradesh and Rajasthan.

Increase in deaths

Bengaluru which had not seen a covid death for many months has seen three deaths in this month. Surprisingly, if we look at the age of the deceased, one of the victims was a 32-year-old and the other who died on Wednesday was a 42-year-old. BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Giri Nath said that they were not holding talks with experts to check why there was an increase in covid deaths. Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan on Thursday said he had asked all the states including Karnataka to ensure the availability of beds and health workers to deal with the viral surge.

On Thursday, Karnataka reported 111 cases including 67 in Bengaluru. A 65 year old man died of Covid in Dharwad.

3 hurt in stab attack

A person, allegedly addicted to drugs, stabbed people on the road and those who were sitting near a temple in Majestic on Thursday.

The injured have been hospitalised. The man first stabbed two people who were waiting for a bus near Ganapati temple. Onlookers tried to stop him and some shocked passersby ran away. He waved a knife and threatened people saying that no one should come near him. At this time, a person who tried to stop the stabbing, was also stabbed. Three people were seriously injured in the stabbing incident. The police arrived at the spot and took the injured to KC General Hospital. Police are checking the CCTV cameras. -BMB

Walk here, vend there

Tired of 'encroachments', citizens want vending zones in HSR Layout

Y Maheswara Reddy

TWEETS @BangaloreMIRROR

Residents of HSR Layout, particularly pedestrians, have been struggling to walk on footpaths in the area as they are occupied by eateries and street vendors. They have been seeking a permanent solution, but to no avail. Pedestrians, including senior citizens and children, are forced to walk on busy roads, putting them at risk of accidents. The residents initiated a 'Give me my footpath' campaign, and it is believed that the elected representative agreed to discuss the matter. However, the condition of the footpaths remained the same.

Community Task Force (CTF) volunteers and other residents have complained to the authorities about the indiscriminate encroachment of footpaths by hawkers and stalls.

Venkatesh HS, a member of the CTF, said, "We are unable to walk on footpaths. Most footpaths, particularly on 19th and 24th Main Roads, are occupied by street vendors and eateries. There is hardly any space for us. I want the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) authorities to relocate the street vendors to suitable locations and ensure that footpaths are free from all types of encroachments."

Sachin Pandit, a resident, expressed concern about footpath encroachment on some roads and poor footpath conditions on others. "The authorities concerned have failed to do their duty. Creating awareness or imposing penalties is their responsibility. Pedestrians have no place to walk as some footpaths are dangerous and others are occupied by street vendors," he said. Pandit urged the BBMP authorities to be committed to ensuring footpaths are free from encroachments. "There are many social media groups to highlight the area's problems, but the authorities are not responding to them. I don't know when the authorities will fix these problems," he said, adding that pedestrians cannot walk on the drain-cum-footpath near Somasundarapalya Junction as some concrete slabs are missing.

> "The only solution is to have an exclusive vending zone for street vendors, eateries
> – Ramakant Nargund, Community Task Force

Ramakant Nargund of the Community Task Force said that he was not against street vendors and wanted the Palike to allocate separate areas for them to carry out their business. "Recently, the BBMP authorities cleared encroachments on footpaths, but the very next day, street vendors occupied them. The only solution is to have an exclusive vending zone for the benefit of street vendors and eateries," he said.

When contacted, the BBMP assistant executive engineer said that he would take measures to clear encroachments from the footpaths in the area. He said a 'cleaning drive' will take place next week for the same.

Are auto unions threatening law and order?

The bike taxi association filed a complaint with Cottonpet police against a video posted on social media by an auto driver union page that urged people to burn bike taxis.

The complaint was raised by the association after the video was posted on the Peace auto union page. As per the complaint filed with the police, President of Auto Union, Raghu Gowda, urged his fellow companions to 'burn each and every bike taxi on the road in two or three days.' He further added, "We should not stop because the CM says something. We should fight every day."

The association urged the police to take action as such statements undermine the authority of constitutional posts like the one of the Chief Minister and pose a threat to law and order. They urged police to take strict action against the accused under Section 107, 108, 117, 120B, and 506 of IPC.

"Failure to do so would be tantamount to violating the order of the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka. Thus, we anticipate the law enforcement agencies to do the needful and implement the order of the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in letter and in spirit," said the association in the complaint. In a Karnataka High Court order, the Transport Department was instructed not to take any coercive steps against the petitioner. – BMB

Probe into BMTC driver's death

The police have found in the investigation pertaining to a BMTC driver who was burnt alive that the victim bought petrol before dying. During the police probe, it was suspected that the man had killed himself. On March 9, a BMTC bus belonging to Summanahalli Depot 31 caught fire at Byadarahalli station. The driver was burnt alive.

Now, during the investigation, the mobile phone and UPI id of the deceased were checked and it was found that the last money transfer was made from his UPI id on the night of the fire. Rs 700 was transferred in the account of a petrol station located a little away from the place of the fire accident. It is suspected that two litre of petrol and five litre of diesel were bought. According to the police, the real reason behind the accident will be known from the FSL report. Meanwhile, the police have interrogated those known to the victim.

CRIME FILES

FIR against auto driver

A BMTC driver has filed an FIR against an auto driver for harassing him. The incident took place at the Baiyappanahalli railway station.

The incident took place on Saturday when the station was extremely crowded and the bus was slightly delayed. Rajanna, a BMTC driver, politely asked an auto driver to move his auto to make way for the bus driver to reverse. According to the sources, the auto driver demanded the BMTC driver to take his bus somewhere else and not park it near the station. Another auto driver who was there, then came up to Rajanna and started abusing him. "I told the auto driver that I am doing my work and he should not interfere. We both got into a heated argument and that is when the auto driver started abusing my family and started threatening me with a knife," says Rajanna, the BMTC driver.

"If the case is registered then the police will make sure that the accused is punished," said the police.

Some hope for K'taka's many quarry owners

Y Maheswara Reddy

Around 1,000 M-Sand-making units across the state, including 400 S-Sand-making units are expected to be benefited from the notification amending the Karnataka Minor Mineral Concession Rules.

The Federation of Karnataka Quarry and Stone Crusher Owners' Association and the Federation of Karnataka Granite and Stone Industry, Bengaluru have welcomed the amendments.

"The amendments will encourage M-Sand-making units, which availed the consent for establishment licence from the Karnataka State Pollution Control Board, to have quarries in 30-km radius of the existing unit," said Kiran Jain, vice president, Federation of Karnataka Quarry and Stone Crusher Owners' Association.

The amendment will benefit 1,000 M-Sand-making units in the state

Kiran said more than 30,000 people depend on M-Sand-making units. "The state government has increased the royalty from Rs 91 to Rs 105. With this, the state government is expected to get more revenue," Kiran Jain said.

He said the government has agreed to consider 5,000 pending applications submitted before August 12, 2016 for grant of quarry lease. "The applications submitted after August 12, 2016 for establishing M-Sand-making plants will be considered by the government," he said.

The recent amendment to the Karnataka Minor Mineral Concession Rules extends the lease period from 20 years to 30 years for ordinary quarries and from 30 years to 50 years for decorative stone quarries.

Meanwhile, Dr Ravindra Shetty Bajagoli, president, Federation of Karnataka Quarry and Stone Crusher Owners' Association said the quarry owners are ready to pay the royalty to the state government. "I appeal to the state government to encourage and support quarry owners," he said.

Traffic islands of lost souls

difficult to step out of their houses because of the traffic chaos at the junction. Vehicles such as ambulances find it difficult to reach the intended location on time.

"The construction of traffic islands is initiated to re-route the traffic. Because of the construction in this area, we have to take a longer route to reach our residence," Sunil, residing near Race Course Junction and Hare Krishna Road said. He said access to Purna Prasad Road is completely cut off except for one small road.

The residents further claimed that the only persons who benefit from the construction work are visitors to the Race Course. According to the residents, Race Course visitors can easily park their vehicles at their convenience.

A resident who prefers to remain anonymous said the roads were freshly tarred about four days ago: "The workers dug up the newly tarred road for construction purposes. We cannot access the flyover... We were not given prior notice about the construction. If we have to get out of the house, we have to travel an additional two kilometres and turn back because of the one-way route."

Dheeraj Bafna, the site engineer of the project said: "The skeleton of the traffic islands has already been made. Although the construction process will take more time, the barricades blocking the roads will be removed within 2-3 days making it convenient for the public."

He further stated that the debris on the road will be removed at the earliest.

Bengalureans now dialling private water tankers

completely dependent on private water tankers. Unfortunately, these water tankers are charging exorbitant prices especially during summer. Earlier, the government had said that it will bring in rules to fix the prices. So, now we request the BWSSB to step in and fix water tanker prices so that the customers are not fleeced any more, he said.

Many residents recently have been complaining of contaminated water supply. However, refuting these allegations, a BWSSB official said that they are now going for water testing and on a daily basis, water samples are collected from 100 houses. "During summer, there is always a fear of spurt in diseases like cholera. So, we need to be extremely careful about the water we supply. We are taking adequate care for supplying purified water to households. Now, we are also testing water samples from 100 houses so that there is no compromise on water quality. In case of any contamination, we will get to know through these water samples," said an official.

Meanwhile, BWSSB is planning to plug the water leakage by changing the pipes. The water board has taken up an Rs 654 crore project to replace the 600-, 675- and 900-mm diameter CI pipes laid in the city 40 to 50 years ago. However, the BWSSB requires a whopping Rs 800 crore for replacing all the old pipes. Hence, the project has been taken up in a phased manner.

The BWSSB has the target to supply water to 12.9 million people (including 110 villages) and the water is being served for 575 square kilometres. The total length of water supply pipelines is 8,746 km. There are 57 (885 ML) ground level reservoirs, 36 (33 ML) overhead tanks, 62 booster pumping stations, 68 water tank trucks. The quantity of water supplied per month is 42,200 ML and the average per capita consumption of water is 108 litre per capita per day.

The numbers in the grey squares refer to the sums of the digits that you must fill into the empty spaces directly below or to the right of the grey square containing the number. For instance, in the given example, the 3 boxes horizontally next to 15 must contain 3 digits that add up to 15, whereas for 9, it is the 2 boxes placed vertically under it that must add up to 9. No zeros are used here, only the digits 1 through 9.

Note: A digit cannot appear more than once in any particular digit combination. For instance, in the example, we cannot have the combination of 4+7+4 for 15.

Rules

» Connect adjacent dots with vertical or horizontal lines, creating a single loop (Fig A). » Crossovers or branches are not allowed (As shown by dotted lines in Fig B). » Numbers in the puzzle indicate the number of lines that should surround it, while empty cells may be surrounded by any number of lines. » You can't draw lines around zeros. » Each puzzle has just one unique solution.

How to begin:

Example (Fig A) – Begin with the zero next to 3. Since no lines can be drawn around zero, mark crosses around it, as shown. Now there is a cross in one space around 3. So we know the three lines of 3 can only be drawn in the remaining three spaces. Next, these lines can only be extended in one direction each. Continue, using the same logic.

Hints: Keep eliminating possibilities by marking crosses in spaces between dots where a line isn't possible, i.e., if you have already completed required lines or where a line extension may create a branch or cause a dead-end (Fig B)

On the occasion of Ugadi, the team 'KD' announced Shilpa Shetty Kundra being on board for the film. The actress will play Satyavati, as mentioned in the poster. Shilpa Shetty was last seen in Upendra's 'Auto Shankar', and returns to Sandalwood after nearly two decades. Monsoon song

The song - Anisuthide Yaako Indu – from the film Mungaru Male sung by Sonu Nigam was a huge hit in 2006. Mano Murthy composed music for Mungaru Male and the song was written by Jayant Kaikini. Now, the same team is out with a new song for monsoon. Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar released the video of the song for forthcoming movie Pranayam recently.

The song – Malegala Bantu Saniha – is written by Jayant Kaikini, sung by Sonu Nigam and music is composed by Mano Murthy. "This song has become a favourite for producer Paramesh. It is the third time I get together with Jayant Kaikini and Sonu Nigam," said Mano in a video message.

Thanking Ashwini Puneeth Rajkumar for launching the song, producer Paramesh said, "It was my dream to have her as the chief guest to release the song. I am very happy to have Ashwini madam as the chief guest. I am confident of the success of this song," said Paramesh. The producer praised Jayant Kaikini's writing skills.

Riches of the land

One more Kannada movie on farmers and their lives is ready for release. The movie titled Srimantha aims to convey a message that farmers are the real rich among people in the society. The movie's highlight is a key role played by Bollywood actor Sonu Sood. There are some punchy dialogues such as: I am a farmer. Don't get confused by my costumes. I am from grassroots not fallen from a parachute – which will make Sonu Sood's fans happy.

Hassan Ramesh, director of the film, said he was happy to have an actor like Sonu Sood. "Sonu Sood was very humble when I approached him. He agreed to act in this movie after I narrated the script. He was cooperative during the shooting. I managed to complete the shooting within three days instead of eight because of his cooperation. He did not complain or demand anything special during the shoot," said Hassan Ramesh.

The trailer of Srimantha was released on Tuesday at SRV Preview Theater, Malleswaram. "We have launched publicity events in all districts to promote the movie. We had arranged a premier show for farmers and many gave positive feedback and appreciated the efforts," the director said.
